

Violeta Vuljaj, a member of CGES Board of Directors

Violeta Vuljaj graduated in Management from the Faculty of Economics in Podgorica since 2018.

She began her professional career at Incasso Management, where she gained practical experience in financial management and debt collection over the course of ten months.

In May 2019, she moved to the public sector, initially serving as Senior Advisor for Economic and Technical Affairs. She then took on the role of Senior Advisor III for Development Projects and Entrepreneurship, followed by her appointment as Inspector III for Local Public Revenues, further broadening her expertise in fiscal policy and economic development.

Since February 2021, she has focused on public procurement, first as an Independent Advisor III for Planning and Reporting, and since February 2022, as an Independent Advisor II in the same field.

Her professional experience encompasses economic consulting, project development, and public finance, with a strong focus on improving efficiency and transparency in the public procurement process.
